Dedication

The 1978-79 Annual Staff is proud to dedicate this yearbook to a man who has put great pride, dedication, enthusiasm, and long hours into producing the best band in the area—Mr. Carl Meyer. Mr. Meyer and the band have given the people of the Yorkwood District and the surrounding area much enjoyment and pride by their activities. Topping things off this year was the band trip to Florida to march in the Walt Disney World Parade. As he leaves Yorkwood to attend graduate school, we wish him the best of luck and say, "Thanks, Mr. Meyer, for the great memories."

So, who can?

Not only do we say good-bye to the graduating class of 1979 but, also, to three familiar faces to Yorkwood students. Beginning next year, the two buildings in Little York and the one in Kirkwood will be replaced by the new school pictured on this page. While the buildings may go, our memories of them will remain.

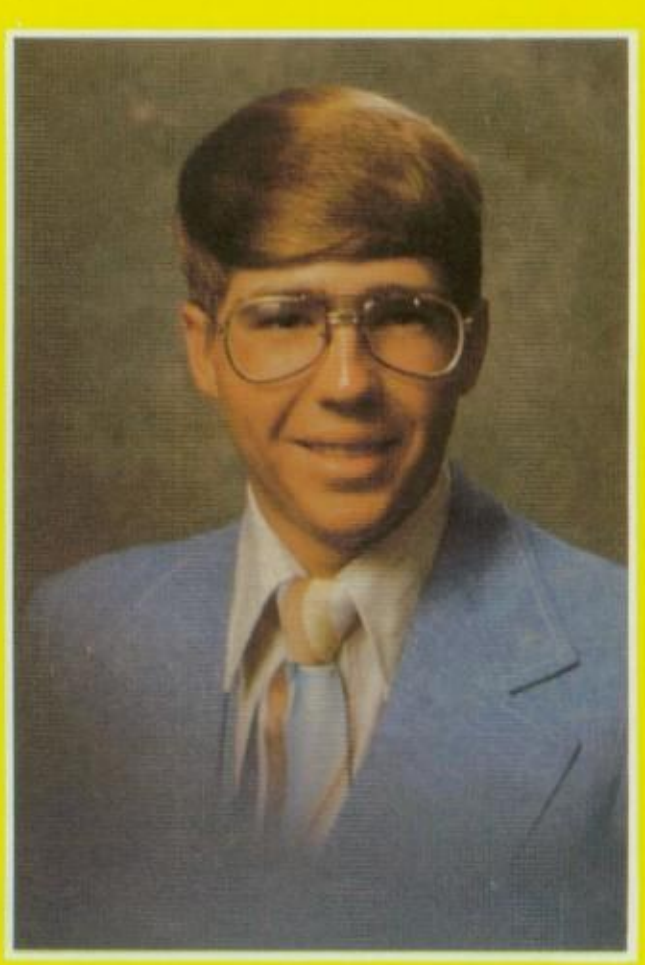
MERLIN MC CLURE



I, Jana Larson, being of autistic body and loaded brain leave to Sandy McNitt, the ability to go to Girls Basketball games and not get sick. To the whole Junior class, I leave you hope, cause you're going to need it.

I, Terri Edwards, being of wild and crazy mind and body will to Carolyn Spence my purity and innocence and my ability not to get caught skipping school; and to the Band, I leave my ability to not blow their cool at marching practices; and I wish you an enjoyable year just like last years.

I, Roberta Welker, being of perverted mind and who knows what type of body, do hereby will to Sandy McNitt a years supply of deodorant just in case she over-exerts herself in P.E.; and to Denise Gulick, I will the old nickname "Foggy" just in case that in the future years she happens to forget that fulfilled exciting night; and to Debbie Olson, I will all the luck in the world with next years Pom Pon's squad, because with Lori Boock and Susie Gillen she'll probably need it. Also to Debbie Olson, I will the ability to walk down the halls without saying "Help me, help me"; and to the remaining students at Yorkwood, good luck and have fun.

I, Deborah Kay Ischer, being of crazy mind and small body do hereby will to Debbie Olson, the ability to do a Pom-Pon routine without falling down; to Doug "Cheater" Boock, the ability to find another short person to pick-on; to Mark "Stuck Up" Lee the ability to make sure he knows who's behind him before he gives his hand signals; to Doug "Cookie-Monster" Kirby, don't forget 'quarter after', and to Howard "Dagwood" Hickerson a 'Demon' since his Fords are no good; and to the Junior class lots of good times.

I, Jane McCleary, being of clean mind and disarranged body, do hereby will to Denise Gulick, the ability to scramble eggs without breaking them; and to Judi Robinson, the ability to go into a restaurant without having to play "Happy Birthday."

I, J. D. Doty, being of sound mind and not so sound body, do hereby will to Ricky Williams a friendly "Hi, R. W." and one thousand ninehundredeighty cookies to devour after wrestling season next year; and to my brother, Cord Doty, my 50% ownership of our "Purple Bomb" so that he will have a form of dependable???? transportation next year, and to them both a great senior year.

I, Barbara Elaine Goff, being of ridiculousy slow mind, and somewhat unorganized body, do hereby will to the future scientists of the world, the chemistry lab in Mr. A.'s room, so they can try to discover if "horses really make long ones." Goodluck!! And to Teresa Moburg, I hereby will to her, Tracy Gerald so together they can explore in P.E. class our many bronzed relatives. Remember, Teresa, hands-off!!

I, Mike Hollis, being of convincing mind and powerful body, do hereby will to Howard Hickerson, my overwhelming power as authority and ruler in the halls of YHS, and the surrounding communities; and to Norman Skov, I will the ability to party hardy and also my phone number in case he has trouble with someone.

I, Nancy Bear, do hereby will all of my clarinet music and P.E. locker to Tracy Bass, and all of my homework and bus seat to John Hardesty.

I, Chris Fredrickson, being of sound mind and almost as sound body, do hereby leave to Geo. Bulen the ability to be in accidents and do the job up better than me.

I, Robin Wells, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Brenda Wilson my ability to stay in school; and to Cathy Hays, my ability to be picked on.

I, Kevin Cavanaugh, with sound mind and strong body will to Doug Boock enough money to purchase vitamin C tablets since he is boycotting orange juice; to Mark Lee, I will two "keep-off" signs to keeps his boyfriend out of his truckbed; and to Mike Walters, I leave a collection of Village People tapes.

I, Matthew Lee, being of Einstein's mind, Don Knott's body, and Maynard Ferguson's lips, do hereby leave the Yorkwood band . . . I also leave to Doug Kirby, my extreme athletic abilities in 4th hour P.E. in hopes that he too, will make the weightlifters 265 club.

I, Erik Haugstad, of superior mind and overflowing Viking blood in my veins hereby give YHS the important task of carrying on the never dying Viking tradition of taking snow baths during P.E. classes.

I, Ed McVey, being of evil mind, and vicious body, do hereby will to Rex McClure, all my valuable parking places "wherever they may be," in hopes that he will put them to better use. And to George Clayton, I leave my football shoes and fantastic football abilities, in hopes that he'll be able to drop the ball as well as I have.

I, Jane Brooks, of whigualeristic mind and injurious body do hereby bequeath as my final will and testimony, the following: To Judi, Judi, Judi Robinson, my ability to stir up lunch conversations; to Doug Boock, a book of candy and reading jokes as well as a new wife; to Connie Moore, my nickname of Tom?!; and to Sandra Harvey, my friendship in hopes that she will find many more as strong and valuable as I find ours.

I, Gail Baker, being of sound mind and decrepit body, do hereby will the following: to Steve Howard, I leave one package of OREO cookies and a toothbrush. To Doug Boock, I leave one bottle of "Neutron" nasal spray so he can have a real blast next year. To Connie Moore, I leave a billboard by my driveway so she doesn't miss it. And to the rest of the Grunions, "Have fun!"

I, Steve Scott, being of sound mind and body, leave to Doug Boock, a Sherlock Holmes Clue book, so that he can find something and "give it back" to a certain person, and to Connie Moore, my hopes that when she gets it back it will be in better shape than it was when she lost it.

I, Toni Melvin, being of no mind and even less body do hereby will to George Clayton, Burt Reynold's ability to pick up women since he hasn't had much luck so far—Good Luck, George!; and to Howard Hickerson a hub-cap from my car so we won't have to go out and find where his is . . . and to the rest of the Junior class, I leave nothing because I have nothing left to leave.

I, Ray Johnson, being of 4 x 4 mind and muddy body, do hereby bequeath to Mike (Toothpick) Johnson, all the dirt roads in Warren County, in hopes that he will do a better job of tearing them up when I did.

I, Merlin McClure, being of superior mind and almost athletic body, leave to my brother, Rex (who I do not claim) the ability to say no, which I didn't have last year if Mom asks if he wants a prom party.

I, Kim Lovell, being of little mind and out of shape body, do hereby will to Judi Robinson, peace and quiet at the lunch table so that she can enjoy her dinner; to Connie Moore, I leave the ability to keep my feelings to myself so that everyone can't hear; to Doug Boock, I leave the ability not to smash people's fingers; to Debbie Olson and the rest of the Pom Pon squad I leave memories of the past and lots of luck for the future; and to Sandra Harvey, I will a map of the roads of Warren County and memories of the good times we've had.

I, John Smith, of occasionally sound mind and athletic body, do hereby will and bequeath to Doug "McHale" Boock, the ability to "set-up" the offense in basketball next year and also a pair of "Pro-Keds", basketball shoes to protect his feet from taking a beating on the court; I also will to Toni Baldwin and Steve Howard lots of gas for trips into Monmouth on Saturday nights and also a box of Pizza Hut coupons.

I, Sherri Edwards, of little brain and shapeless body do hereby leave Tracy Gerald, a new puppy dog so it can follow her and Roger around; and to Carolyn Spence, the little talks on the bus and the month of December; to Sandy McNitt, I leave a permanent smile and to my class I leave memories of success. To Curt and Steve, I leave my drum major outfit in hopes they fill it out as well as I did.

A Time For Us

A time for us someday there'll be,
When chains are torn by courage
Born of a love that's free.
A time when dreams so long denied
Can flourish as we unveil the love
We now must hide.
A time for us at last to see a life
Worthwhile for you and me. And
With our love through tears and thorns
We will endure as we pass surely through Every storm.
A time for us someday there'll be
A new world, a world of shining
Hope for you and me.

A Time For Us To Fly

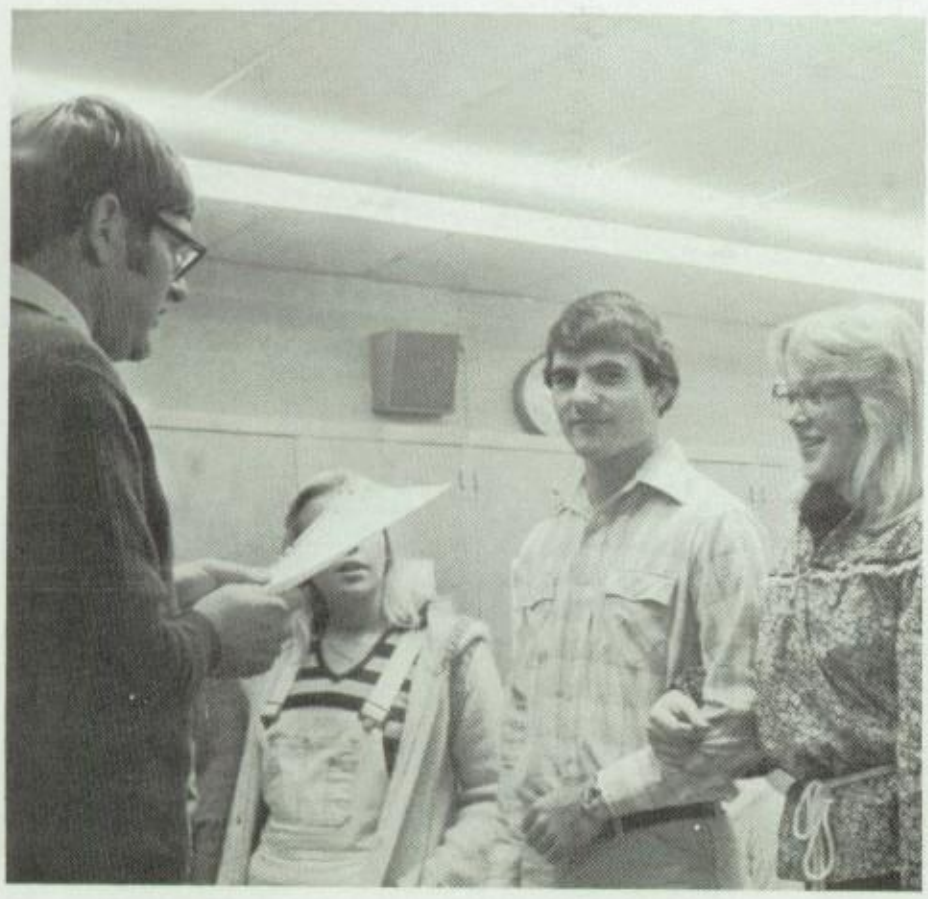
Dana and Jerry listen in on a conversation.

Bill's date keeping an eye on him.

A happily married couple!!!

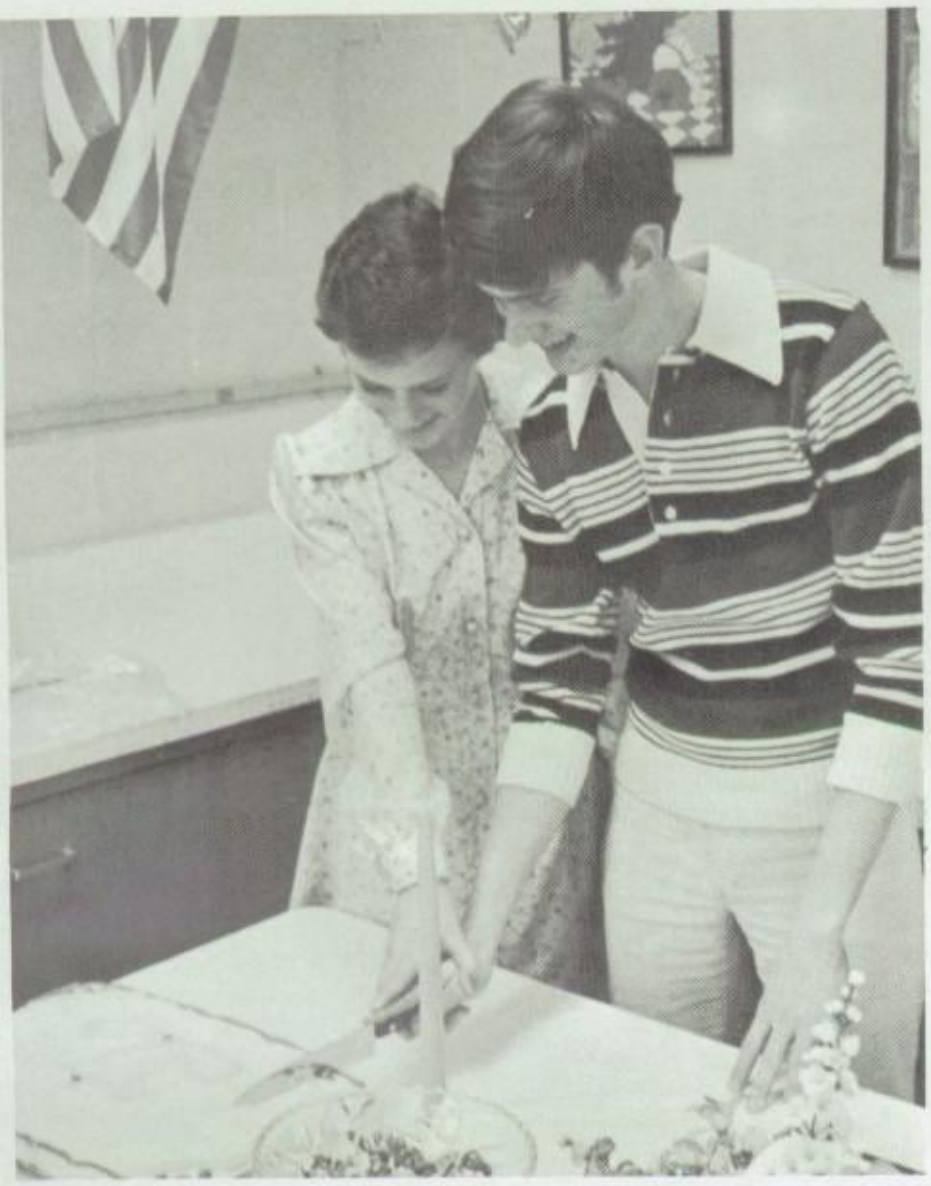
The word is I DO Kirk, not maybe!

This year the consumers education class had a wedding of some couples so that they could try and understand what a real wedding would be like. The couples were married by Mr. Johnson.



You cannot back out now John, sorry!!!!!

You have got to be kidding, Jane Brooks married . . .???



AHH, how sweet, don't they look cute!!

That looks like the only way to keep them from fighting.

The traditional eating of the cake . . .

Mr. Meyer was the provider of the music at the weddings.

EVERY YEAR THERE IS AN EVENT THAT THE WHOLE JR. HIGH AND HIGH SCHOOL CAN ATTEND. THIS YEAR THE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL WAS PLEASED TO BRING A ROCK GROUP FROM THE CHANUTE AIR FORCE BASE LOCATED AT RANTOUL, ILLINOIS. THE GROUP WAS CALLED TYME AND AS YOU CAN TELL BY THE SNAPS ON THESE TWO PAGES THAT THE GROUP ENABLED THE STUDENTS TO GET AWAY FROM THE CLASSROOMS AND REALLY ENJOY THEMSELVES.
